

A detailed photograph of a vintage kitchen. In the foreground, a large metal coffee mill with a grid-like base is prominent. To its left is a white ceramic teapot and a small jar labeled 'SUCRE'. In the background, a wooden shelf holds a dark glass pitcher with a white floral pattern, a vase with white flowers, and a framed sign that reads 'Rein und gam der Küche Glas'. To the right, another sign says 'gerollt'. The scene is filled with various antique kitchenware, including plates, cups, and a small bust in the bottom left corner.
